UNION CITY NOTES.

Mrs. Luella McDougle, Miss Birdie Brown and Master Guy Williams spent two days in Fulton, Ky., visiting relatives and friends last week. Mrs. Wm. Foulks was the charming hostess of the F. L. C. Club on last Tuesday at her home on E. Matthew street. Progressive whist was the game of the evening. A dainty three-course menu was served. The club adjourned to meet with Miss Genie Foulk on South First street. The funeral of Miss Ella Cross will take place at the A. M. E. Church Monday, March 24, at 1 p. m. Owing to the prevailing circumstances the Easter services at the several churches were a success. Rev. Harris preached a powerful sermon at the First Baptist Church Sunday afternoon. "Be ye not unequally yoked together," etc., was his text. He did not fail to impress his audience when he urged them to take no sides with the world but stand up for Jesus.

CLARKSVILLE NOTES.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Herbert entertained informally Saturday evening for their sister, Mrs. Ben J. Thomas, of Nashville. Their house guest for the week end. The evening was delightfully spent in music and games. A delicious repast was served and the guest list numbered only a few close friends.

A Remarkable Surgical Operation.
Dr. R. T. Burt has established a record for removal of tumors in the history of the medical practice in Tennessee, when week before last he removed a fibroid tumor for a female patient at the Home Infirmary, weighing fifty and one-half pounds. To perform this wonderful operation the abdomen was laid open eighteen inches. The operation was performed at the request of Dr. Atkinson, the leading female physician of this part of the state, and was witnessed by two other white physicians. Dr. Buckner assisted Dr. Burt in the operation. The patient is doing well and will soon be all right again. So remarkable was the operation that the Rev. Dr. Dhiel, of the First Presbyterian Church, spoke the First Presbyterian words of Dr. Burt in commendatory words of Dr. Burt from his pulpit.

The public had a genuine surprise last Thursday, the 20th, when it was announced that Miss Birdie Mason, one of the most popular school teachers, had been married at 1:30 that day to Mr. Joseph Lane, of St. Louis. The ceremony was performed at St. Peter's parsonage by Rev. D. A. Graham. The groom left for his home on Friday, but the bride will teach a while, at least until her place can be filled. The funeral of Mr. Frank Hunter, who was accidentally shot while hunting in Arkansas the 16th inst., took place at St. Peter A. M. E. Church Thursday, the 20th. The United Christian Club of St. John Baptist Church met at the residence of Mrs. Wm. Fries, College street, Friday, the 21st. St. John is having a remarkable revival, conducted by her excellent pastor, Rev. M. H. Holloway. Don't forget the great missionary meeting next Sunday afternoon. Come and hear Mrs. Dhiel, Mrs. Stacker and Mrs. Merritt.

BRIERSVILLE NOTES.

Easter Sunday was observed at Mt. Calvary Baptist Church and at the A. M. E. Church. Rev. S. P. Hartsfield filled the pulpit Sunday night at the M. E. Church. A strong sermon was delivered, subject, "The Prodigal Son." A large crowd was in attendance and a good collection was realized. Mr. and Mrs. J. Spener Williams entertained at dinner a few friends from the city Easter Sunday. A four-course menu was served. Those present besides the host and hostess were Misses Nannie Stone and Mattie Webb, Mrs. Mary Sharp and Mr. Gordon White. Mrs. Arminia Shute and Mrs. Paralee Pettis are on the sick list. Mr. Edd H. Pettis spent last Saturday and Sunday at Chapel Hill, Tenn. Mrs. Nannie Bates spent Friday in Nashville. Mr. Ben Porter, of Kansas City, Mo., spent Saturday night in Nashville. Miss Lurena Lewis, of Briersville, visited her sister, Mrs. Annie Hill, of Nashville, last Saturday and Sunday. Dr. Joseph Turner, of Lebanon, was in town Friday and went out to Rodenham to see his former wife's father, and mother. Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Howard, who were hurt in the recent storm. The doctor is looking well and his many friends here were very glad to see him in our town. Mr. Ruby Pinder and the Sykes brothers came home Saturday from Athens, Ala., where they have been for a week laying brick. Rev. A. Brooks preached the Easter sermon at his church for the Immaculate Order here Sunday.

DICKSON NOTES.

Sunday was a gay day at Dickson. Easter exercises were good at St. James A. M. E. Church. Good congregations all day. The pastor, Rev. W. L. Ledford, proved himself equal to the task in preaching the Easter sermon in the morning and at night there was an overwhelming crowd to listen to the rendition of the program which was excellent. St. James choir did great credit to themselves. At the conclusion $19.82 was given as an Easter offering. There were several distinguished gentlemen present that took part in the exercises. Rev. A. Wyley at the missionary Baptist Church. Rev. Hunt, of Nashville, Tenn., and Dr. N. Milles, of Dickson, Tenn., all made excellent and appropriate talks. The Easter exercises at the First and Second Baptist Churches here were good. Rev. W. L. Ledford, pastor of the A. M. E. Church, was in attendance and made an excellent talk. Rev. R. B. Ross was in Nashville last week on business and to see his daughter, Miss Johnnie Ross. The rally at the M. E. Church Sunday was a grand success. $95.40 was raised. Misses Harriet Pointer and Annie Wiley, who have been here taking special studies under Mrs. R. B. Ross, left Monday morning for their home in Waynesboro. Little Henry Grimes, while playing with a dynamite cap, met with a serious accident. Three of his fingers were shot off and had to be amputated by Dr. Milles. Little Henry is doing well. Rev. Rye, presiding elder of the Clarksville District, was here Monday. Mrs. Lula Hill was in Nashville last week shopping. Mrs. Hill has opened a neat little millinery shop here and would be glad to have the patronage of all the people. Rev. Hill, the pastor of the First Baptist Church here, is leading his people to success. He has a rally planned for the first Sunday in April, when he hopes to raise one hundred dollars. The public is cordially invited to be present. The Easter exercises at the First and Second Baptist Churches were beautiful. The children all rendered their pieces well, each church realized a good Easter offering. Foster Maberry is confined to bed suffering with pneumonia. Mrs. Zona Sugges and Miss Maud Cathey are ill. A. Gordon, secretary; Mrs. B. Beck, treasurer; Mrs. Eliza Tidwell, chairman. East End Art Club held its regular meeting at the residence of Mrs. Bettie Beck, East End, Thursday. The president presided. After the regular business a very interesting paper was read by Mrs. Deshayzer. The hostess served a delicious two-course menu. Visitor present was Mrs. Lettie White. The club adjourned to meet with Mrs. Eliza Tidwell, Thursday, March 7, 1913. Visitors are welcome.

ROWLAND NOTES.

On March the 20th the people of this place were aroused by a great storm. Trees were blown down and fences blown to pieces, but no houses nor barns were destroyed. Those who are ill are Mr. Sam Bates and Mrs. Sarah E. Martin. Mrs. Annie Gribble, who was taken suddenly ill on last Saturday evening while at her daughter's bedside, is very ill at this writing. Miss Ollie and Willie Mart, Mr. Lee Dean and Miss Lela B. Martin were guests of Lizzie Baines and Elbert Martin Sunday afternoon.

MCEWEN NOTES.

Easter was nicely spent. Mrs. Ada Spicer conducted a successful reception at the A. M. E. Church on Saturday night and a number of young people from Bolds Springs were present and report a nice time. Several ladies from Dickson were in town this week. Rev. Mr. Parlotte, pastor of the church at Pine Hill, preached a noble sermon for Rev. J. M. Ewell at Elm Grove. The concert at Pleasant Hill on Saturday night was enjoyable to all. Mr. McSpicer has returned home from Fulton, where he met his two little children, Master McSpicer and Little Carrie McSpicer. Mr. Joe Ellison, of Dickson, was here on last Sunday visiting his mother and father. Mrs. Jessie M. Johnson and Elalria Anthony, Annie Hornbeat, Berry Taylor, of Waverly, Tenn., spent a short time with relatives Sunday. The storm a few days ago left us harmless but very much frightened. Those who are sick are improving. Rev. Louis Wilson and Cabot Adams, Rev. J. M. Ewell has begun a ten days' meeting at McEwen. Everybody is invited to attend. The month of March is giving us so very much rain that everybody will be late with their gardens. If you want to know what our race is doing, read the Globe.

at his best in the pulpit. Our Sunday-school was favored by a visit from Mr. H. McKee and T. E. Moseley. Both gentlemen delivered beautiful addresses. Several visitors were out. The Easter lessons were beautifully discussed by the teacher. Superintendents and visitors. Mr. T. E. Moseley made some touching remarks on the need of more Sunday-schools in our community; also did Mr. H. McKee, who is one of our wide awake young men. The storm on last Thursday night did considerable damage to property in our vicinity. Several tobacco barns as well as stock barns were blown down. The storm seemed to have been traveling in a northwestern direction through our neighborhood. Mrs. Malinda Moseley and Miss Florence Sims spent Tuesday with Mrs. Maud Richie. Mr. and Mrs. Harrison White spent Easter with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brooks. Mr. and Mrs. Sims spent Easter in Greenfield. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Abbot spent Easter in Gibson County. Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Moseley spent Easter afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Malinda Moseley. Mr. Steve McDaniel and Mr. W. Jones were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Squire Moseley Sunday. Mr. J. R. Richee has returned from Paducah, Ky., to which place he went on business. Mr. Obadiah Richee is reported ill. Mr. H. Brooks is making considerable improvement on his place. Mr. Tommie Ward of Gleason was in our community Sunday. The Nashville Globe is taking fast in our vicinity. The people like to read after their race and to know of them. Read after your race; everybody else is "doing it now," why not you?

CENTREVILLE NOTES.

We are having some beautiful weather now. Mrs. Ella Mayberry was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Miss Mary Stacle were in town on Mary Fleming from Thursday until Friday. Mrs. Ella Mayberry and business Thursday. Mrs. Lena Grimes, wife of Mr. Tob Grimes, died March 19th. She leaves a mother, three sisters, two brothers, a husband, three children and a host of friends. Her remains were laid to rest in the Centreville Cemetery. Mr. William Fleming is building his new home in East Centreville and hopes to move in, in a few days. Mrs. May Fleming was in town Monday on business. She was the guest of Mrs. Mattie Wells.

MASON NOTES.

Mr. J. Milton Easterling of Chattanooga, Tenn., the Grand Lecturer of the Knights of Pythias delivered one of the most powerful lectures last Tuesday night at St. Mark C. M. E. Church on the subject, "Man," that was ever heard in our city. Mr. Easterling is an influential speaker. He represents some of the best talented men in our race. "Go on Easterling." Rev. P. H. Ruffin is much improved after a week's illness and has returned to his work in the city of Memphis. A good number of our district school teachers have closed their schools and returned home for recreation. We are having a deal of deaths in the suburbs of our city. Miss Dimple Washington, daughter of Mrs. Tennessee Robinson departed this life last week. Mrs. B. P. Fields has been on the sick list, but has revived again. Mrs. B. L. Cravens of Paris, Tenn., is here for a fortnight visiting parents and relatives. The Easter program at Alexander Chapel M. E. Church was grand. There were no failures. The program was under the management of Miss Mabel B. Buggs and Nina P. Fields. This Easter has broken the history of Alexander Chapel in the collection. The amount of collection raised on this specified day was Twenty ($20.40) dollars and forty cents. Our church is now in a prosperous condition. We are doing more now, for different causes than we ever have before. A nice Easter program was rendered last Sunday night at St. Mark C. M. E. Church also at Cedar Grove Baptist Church.

MCKENZIE NOTES.

On March 12th there was a swell reception given at the home of Mrs. Mattie Randle, in honor of Mrs. Bertha Taylor, who had just closed a successful session at the Eowden school. The closing exercises of the school were held Friday afternoon, March 7. Dinner was served to the teachers, children and visitors. Quite a number was out and a delightful time was had. There was a ball game between the City School and Bowden School, which resulted 12 to 17 in favor of the City School. After a nice little program was rendered, the teacher gave an appropriate talk, after which the good-byes were said. At the reception, the string band made music which greatly added to the occasion. Mrs. Taylor wishes to assure the good people of McKenzie, and the parents of the Bowden School, that her stay over there was an enjoyable one, and she highly appreciates their many deeds of kindness.

SHARON NOTES.

On Tuesday night, March 18, there was a grand and general entertainment given at the M. E. Church under the auspices of the church and school. The pole was successfully platted and unplatted to the satisfaction of all which showed that a careful training had been given. The County Superintendent, Prof. Syl Fisher, and Prof. Murray, principal of white public school were present and brought with them other teachers and a number of pupils, who expressed themselves as having enjoyed the Maypole Plait. The superintendent and Prof. Murray made addresses, also some of the pupils rendered excellent pieces which added largely to the occasion. The church had a fine table spread for those who wanted to eat. Rev. L. M. Moores, P. C. did some excellent singing, which received much applause. Prof. Dobbs was earnestly requested to have the Maypole Plait again, right soon. The following are the twelve young ladies who participated: Misses Mosella, Thelma, Clara, Allie May, Tansil; Georgia Adams, Mary Ella Robinson, Maud Winston, Carrie Love, Fannie Bowers, Carrie Hall, Eva Hester and Anna Johnson. The following are reported ill: Rev. T. L. Tansil, Miss Otha Tansil, Mrs. Lable Pointer, Mrs. Eva Robinson, Mrs. Adline Tansil, Mrs. Sis Bowers, Rev. N. J. and Clara Tansil, Messrs. Jim Clemons, and Dee Bell of Greenfield were in our town Sunday. Messrs. George Tansil and Arthur Higgs made a trip to Greenfield Sunday. People are getting ready for farming.

GREENFIELD NOTES.

Our town was visited by quite a little storm Thursday night, March 20. Quite a deal of damage was done. The following homes were visited by the storm in some way. Messrs. Dee Bell, John Williams, Ellis Allen, Jr., Berce Allen, A. M. E. parsonage, Albert Moseley, Will Crutchfield, Nute Tyler, Rev. D. F. Estis, also the A. M. E. Baptist and C. M. E. Churches were damaged. No one is reported seriously hurt. This time will long be remembered by the people of Greenfield. Rev. A. H. Norris, P. C., of the C. M. E. Church of Dresden spent the most of last week in our town, assisting Rev. C. A. Craig, P. C., of Edmond's Chapel, C. M. E. Church, here. He gave excellent service and preached some very thoughtful sermons. Services were held at A. M. E. Church Friday night, on account of damage done to the C. M. E. Church during the storm. Rev. R. Vann, P. E., of Dickson District A. M. E. Church came to our town Friday afternoon and was present at the services Friday night, and made some striking remarks. Rev. Vann pastored the A. M. E. Church here some years ago and has ever lived in the hearts of our people. Mrs. Leanna Butler of Medina came to our town Saturday to visit her daughter, Mrs. Bessie Dobbs. Mrs. Jane Tosh, who has been at Humboldt for a few months returned Sunday. Mrs. Fessie Dobbs and Mr. Junior Clark went to Sharon to Maypole Plait Tuesday night, March 18th. Miss Cinda Strayhorn of Milan, spent last week here, visiting Miss Hattie Love Donald. Mrs. Gertrude Scates Malone and little daughter, Velmar of Fulton, Ky., arrived in our town Sunday-afternoon. In "Sage Field," the storm did quite a deal of damage. The home of Rev. Estis was torn away. Mrs. John Williams' home was blown off pillars, and kitchen blown away; also about 16 fruit trees were blown down. These two homes were perhaps more damaged than any others among our people. This storm will be long remembered here. The C. M. E. Congregation has arranged to have services until the church can be repaired, or other arrangements made. Miss Ethel
